*Music and Images by the Labyrinth
Candlelight Labyrinth Walk*

Friday, March 14, 2008, 6 - 9 pm

Grace Cathedral, San Francisco

Join us for an inspirational Grace After Hours labyrinth evening with contemplative music and amazing images. Composer Martin Gregory deftly crafts memory, passion, and spirit of place into music which is meditative yet lively, moving and transformative. Fine art photographer Cindy Pavlinac presents a multimedia show of images projected onto 30 foot hanging silk veils featuring her photos of sacred places, pilgrimage destinations, prehistoric sites, and labyrinths.

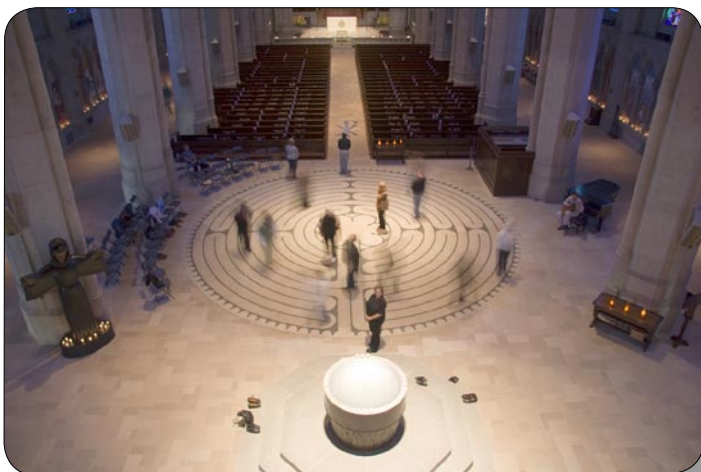

6:00 – 9:00 pm Indoor Labyrinth open to the public

6:30 – 8:30 pm Music by the Labyrinth, Martin Gregory, grand piano
Power of Place Images, Cindy Pavlinac, sacred site photos

6:30 – 8:30 pm Journal writing and quiet contemplation, Chapel of Grace

Come share in the sacred space and welcome of Grace Cathedral
1100 California Street, at Taylor, atop Nob Hill in San Francisco

The event is free and open to all, hosted by the Grace Cathedral Labyrinth Guild as part of their monthly Grace After Hours Open Labyrinth Walk series, occurring on the 2nd Friday evening of every month. Info: www.gracecathedral.org.

British born Martin Gregory is a California based musician and artist who visits sacred locations for inspiration, and has walked innumerable historic and modern labyrinths in Europe and the USA. He composes for meditation, film and multimedia projects, and performs live at art galleries, festive gatherings, creative conferences and labyrinth walks internationally. His Labyrinth Walk instrumental music CD is a favorite of Veriditas Facilitators and labyrinth walkers around the world. www.sacred-land-photography.com/MusicPage.html.

Artist photographer Cindy Pavlinac specializes in images which convey the beauty, mystery, spirit and power of place. She works on location in Europe and across America photographing ancient sanctuaries and modern expressions of the sacred. She has a Master's Degree in Arts and Consciousness Studies and her work appears in numerous publications, including the Veriditas and Grace Cathedral websites.
